in the 23d Ohio Infantry:

CAME RECEDED. WEST VIECENIA, } February 19th, 1663, } DEAR Sin: I make bold to address you at this time, as I have never written to you before, or attempted to ask your opinion or ideas on the all-important crisis which has encircled its hideons forms around us; also, I hear from every soldier who comes back to the regiment, that the folks at home are almost all of them in fayor of compromising with the rebels, and selling our lives and prosperity, yes, everything, only to have peace.

Now, dear sir, I am not posted in political matters, therefore, I cannot write a political letter, nor am I eapable of holding a controversy; neither do I wish to, but as this is a free country, or fast getting to be one, I think I have a perfect right to state my opinion when it is not treason, or I would say avowing treason. For my part, I cannot see why so many officers in the Free States should cherish treason, or come out openly and away destruction to our Government, because they are forced to pay a little tax to assist the Government in putting down this gigantic and foul uprising in the slave portion of our Government's limits. I presume the Precident's Emancipation Proplamation does not suit some of them. ecause they cannot see it in its right light They are ignorant of its effects. I would predict this:

If every citizen in the Pree States would just now give a hearty response to this Proclamation, and throw away this political wrangling; give the whole of their at-tention in a firm and resolute manner, the war would soon be over, and the Union would in a short time be on a free and sure basis of always remaining so.

This rebellion is not for the benefit of the laboring classes, although the Vallan-digham stamp contend that it is. But it inagainst the working classes, without dis tinction of color. It was commenced, and is earried on for the purpose of creating a tyrannical aristocracy. But Jeff, carries this war on under the cloak of securing the rights of the people.

Mr. D. — , why do you allow such foul traitors as Vallandigham, Seymour and Parker to live amongst you? It would be an act of benevolence to politely put a Colt's pistol to their heads, and pull the trigger. Never mind if it does make a noise; there is one thing sure, it would be a fittle more tranquil in some circles. Will you allow their infamous projects to succeed? Shall the President and other officials be overswed by those miscreants against our decreat ties and liberties? This is the question which interests every body to mine the fate of our nation and of civil liberty, for ages to come, and probably for

enly boiling over with wrath and indigna-tion at those Copperheads at home. You can rely on the soldiers; they are loyal. We only want a chance at those scoun-drels, but we are in the field, and we expact the folks who remain at home to keep the traitors down there. I would like no better fun than to have our regiment mee he same number of Northern traitors There is one thing sure; if these treason-able men in the North are not soon put down, it will be a great disaster to the Army, for there are of course thousands of those who came out under the last call, those hundred dollar men I mean, they have not a speck of patriotism in their hearts. They are a disgrace to our forces, and we who came out under the first call, of caurse hate them, because we think we are not used right. We were to the first place nearly

I presume we will move down to Charles-town in a few days. We expect to leave this post and move down, in order to make easier and cheaper transportation. We will never attempt to go to the Railread in this direction again; we have failed twice. All our force, except - Regiments, is gon-to reinforce General Rosscrans, hence think we will probably occupy and hold Charlestown next summer, and hold the Salt Works, and remain on the defensive. I anticipate an easy time next summer, if Your humble servant, POSIELANIMOUS PEACE .- "War never leaves, where it found a nation. It is never to be entered into without mature deliberation: not a deliberation lengthened out into a perplexing indecision, but a deliberation leading to a sure and fixed judg-ment. When so taken up, it not to be is abundoned without reason as valid, as ful-ly and as extensively considered. Peace may be made as unadvisedly as war. Nothing is so rash as fear; and the coun-cels of maillant in the counsels of pusillanimity very rarely put off, whilst they are always sure to ag cravato, the evils from which they would fly.
